

Amazing...

- ... that 50 € is so much money, if we donate it to the Church. But there is so little money when we buy it for ourselves.
- ... as long an hour is when one spends in prayer and serving God. But how quickly dissipates this hour, if you spend them with friends.
- ... as long occurs one time in the church and the hours spent in the house of God. But the hours fly in front of the TV meaning that you do not notice.
- ... if we are talking to God during the daily prayer we don't know what we say to God. But our friends, we have to tell something new every day.
- ..., how exciting it is when playing football in the injury time goes. But if the service takes a little longer, then we look at the clock.
- ... how hard is it every day to read a chapter in the Bible, but how easy it is 100 pages of a popular book to read.
- ... as people strive for the top seats at a concert or play and choose a rear seat in the church.
- ... that we need 2 to 3 weeks lead time to plan an event in our community. But we are very spontaneous when it comes to planning our personal free time.
- ... that we are already planning for some time ahead of time and money for vacations, but for conference and special events in the community we lack the time and money.
- ... that we buy for special events in the world (wedding, funeral, baptism) new clothes, but for worship on Sunday, we wear clothes we wear every day.
- ... if we go to school or work, we are never late. But for the service we wait until the last second before we leave the house.
- ... that it is difficult for us to talk about Jesus Christ and the truth of God to witness, but it is easy for us to spread gossip.
- ... as we like to believe everything that is reported in newspapers and on television, but our Bible is decorated with cobwebs in the corner and we have doubts about what the preacher says.

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Matthew 6, 24)

No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Luke 16, 13)

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Matthew 6, 33)

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. (Mark 1, 15)
